

ORDINANCE NO. 70.

An Ordinance Amending Subdivision ~~Number~~ Twenty-nine of Section Number Fourteen of Ordinance Number sixty-five.

The Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi do ordain as follows:

Section 1.- Subdivision Twenty-nine of Section Fourteen of Ordinance Sixty-five is hereby amended to read as follows:

Subdivision 29.- Every person, firm or corporation engaging in the wholesale liquor business in the City of Lodi shall pay a license tax of $30.00 per quarter year.

For the purpose of this subdivision, liquors are divided into three classes and the sale thereof regulated as hereinafter provided.

(a) Whiskey, brandy, rum, gin, alcohol or any blend or admixture there and all distilled liquors, except regularly fortified wines and except proprietary compounds and mixtures handled in the original package known as cordials, liquors and essences.

(b) Vinous and malt liquors and all liquors when the alcohol therein is obtained by fermentation.

(c) Proprietary compounds and mixtures known to the trade as cordials, liquors and essences, which may be classed as alcoholic beverages.

The sale of all liquors enumerated in class "a" hereof in quantities less than one-fifth gallon is hereby prohibited.

The sale of liquors enumerated in class "b" hereof is hereby authorized as follows : Fortified wines in quantities of not less than one-fifth gallon. Dry wines known to the trade as case goods and where the same is not bottled on the premises may be sold in bottles containing one-tenth gallon, provided, however, that not less than two such bottles be sold to the purchaser at the same time, both of which must be immediately taken from the premises.

The sale of beer is prohibited except in original packages and must be sold in quantities of not less than two dozen bottles containing one-tenth gallon and one dozen bottles containing one-fifth gallon, all of which must at one time be removed from the premises.

The sale of liquors enumerated in class "c" are hereby authorized as follows:

Proprietary compounds, liquors and essences which may be classed as alcoholic beverages in original packages only containing not less than one-tenth gallon. Other cordials or essences which may be classed as alcoholic beverages in quantities of not less than one-tenth gallon, provided that whenever the original package contains less than one-tenth gallon more than one package must be sold to the same purchaser at the same time to make up the minimum amount.

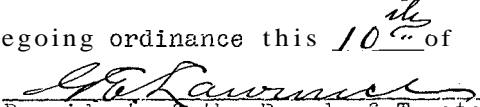

Any holder of a wholesale license who shall permit liquor to be drunk on the premises or on adjacent premises under his control shall be deemed to have violated this ordinance.

Any license issued under this subdivision may be peremptorily revoked by the Board of Trustees if in their judgment the general reputation of the licensee or the place of business or the manner of conducting the same warrant such cancellation.

No person suffering a cancellation of his license shall be again granted a license under this subdivision within the period of one year from the date of such cancellation.

Section 2-This ordinance shall be published by being printed and posted in three public places in the City of Lodi and shall take effect and be in force from and after thirty days after its passage and posting.

I hereby approve and sign the foregoing ordinance this 10th of February, 1913.

President of the Board of Trustees of the City of Lodi, California.
